river that separates Spain and Portugal. Because both towns are border towns near the ocean, historically both Castro Marim and Vila Real de Santo Antonio have been of high strategic military importance.

The natural beauty of Castro Marim has created a village which seems a little detached from the rest of the Algarve, where people enjoy a slower pace of life. Properties tend to be mostly residential. The proximity to the golf courses of Quinta do Vale and Castrom Marim golf makes it an interesting location for golf lovers. The fabulous blue flag beach of Praia Verde with its various quality restaurants is within a 5 minute drive. Access to the A22 is quick and easy and therefore offers a good opportunity to visit shops, restaurants and life just over the border into Spain. Visiting the salt flats of Castro Marim is an excellent opportunity to get to know more about the customs of this Mediterranean village.

Vila Real de Santo Antonio is known for its pretty cobble stone streets, the marina and a great sports centre and tennis school.
